Good morning,

Here is the list that I need official quotes for. I have included a sub list also.

Cathey is requesting that the quotes list the books in alphabetical order by title with the ISBN number. And your company order number.

There is not a big rush. The orders are due to her by Feb. 23 and we have to receive them by April 6.

My total budget is $2636.

Thanks,

Juhree

Dr. Rodríguez and Ms. Barta,

Yesterday at the migrant meeting (Jessica) presented some fabulous ideas on how to implement hands-on fun/innovative curriculum for summer programs. This is definitely an idea of what we could do with the summer city funds for enrichment for students. This would move us away from some of the past practices. Wanted to share. I think we could make this summer an incredible learning opportunity for students. The greater goal could be learning for staff on what engaged hands-on learning looks like. Not sure if the stop motion piece was included. We have the tools for doing this project already in our district. (It has potential to change thoughts on writing/technology.) This would be non-threatening and a change in mind set and practice.

LaVern

Hey Kyla,

I've gotten the changes made in the handbooks. If you can just skim through them to see if you catch anything. I haven't finished numbering pages at CHS yet and still working on formatting. See what problems you may run across. Thanks,

I have no clue why they are showing as full day? That would indicate that the data wasn't uploaded from LAST week!

The information is supposed to 'link' every morning at 9:30 a.m., according to the STARS Manual. I didn't get the data sent in until about 10:00 this morning, so if we can wait until tomorrow at about the same time, hopefully it will be updated.

Anil~ Can you update the CARLSBAD (020) data?

MS. Smith,

Thank you much for your quick response. We would really like for her to be able to visit the campus. She is very reluctant to move (very much an introvert) and has formed a pretty tight bond with two teachers at Aztec High School after the shooting incident in December.

I would very much appreciate a list of classes available and description if you could email them.

Again thank you so much.

Joey

Good Afternoon, We are considering relocating to Carlsbad this summer, we have a soon to be Junior who is reluctant to change schools. I was trying to find a class listing/description of classes offered at the CHS campus, as well as graduation requirements. Is there any way someone can send me those, so I can show her what the school offers? I also am wondering if we could perhaps come see the campus on May 7, 2018 as we have interviews with the CPD that morning? Thank you for your consideration and time, Joey

Hi Coaches,

First, I have attached a new version of the Congressional Debate legislation packet that fixes a small typo.

Next, here is the next list of things to be working on this week for the National Qualifying Tournament. Thanks again to Jose for making video instructions that accompany these instructions.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vAWpIRam-g0&t=315s>

DUE DATE: All entries finalized in your Joy of Tournaments account by the end of Thursday, March 8.

1) Entering Piece Titles

At the bottom of your home entries screen, click on each event in which you have entries.

For interpretation, you will enter the the Title and Author of each piece. You can leave ISBN blank here, because you will take care of that elsewhere.

For Oratory and Informative, enter the title of their speeches.

2) Main Events Green Sheet

If you do not have any interpretation entries, you will only need to print the first three pages, sign the first page, and then submit to Google Drive. You can skip the rest of these instructions in #2 if you don't have Interp entries.

If you have entries in Interpretation events, there will be many steps to follow here. First, I recommend that you skip to the last page of the Main Events Green Sheet. There, you will find a "Script Verification Cover Sheet" that must be filled in for every interpretation entry. Please read each of the certification statements so that you understand the rules.

On page 4, you will find the bibliography page. Please note- if you have more than three entries in Interpretation, you will need to print additional sheets of this page to accommodate all of your entries.

If you have POI entries, you will probably want to create your own POI Bibliography page that includes all the necessary publication information for each component of the POI.

3) Submit scripts to Google Drive

In your Google Drive, you have been given a folder for Oratory and info scripts and a folder for Interp scripts. You need to upload electronic versions of those scripts into your Google Drive. Please label each of your scripts so that it's easy to locate them.

Please note, it's not enough to just bring the full book with you to the tournament. We need photocopied versions of the original publications uploaded-just the pages used in the cutting-not the full book. It is recommended; however, that you bring original books with you in case of discrepancies. But before the tournament begins, we need uploaded versions in your Google Drive. Also, please note, typed out Word documents are not acceptable. We need to be able to tell where the piece came from.

4) Single Entry Forms

For each of your students that enters more than one event, you will need to fill in the Single Entry Letter of Intent, attached to this email. Students are only allowed to enter one event at the National Tournament, so this form is required to make sure we know which event your student would prefer to go in.

On the form, you can all skip "section A" because we have no auto-qualifiers.

Fill in the appropriate answers to "Section B." Things to note: If a student is competing in a partner event, they cannot do another partner event with a different partner. For example, Trey and Jose can do Public Forum and Trey and Jose can do Duo. However, if Trey and Jose do Public Forum, Trey CANNOT do Duo with Hannah. It must be the same partner for both events. Furthermore, partner events must be preferred on the sheet UNLESS both members of the partnership agree to prefer their individual events first.

Only the coach needs to sign these forms now. When all forms are gathered, please upload to Google Drive. We would prefer that you upload all of these forms in one big file together. If you do them individually for each student, that's fine, too.

5) Fees

Finally, please remember that fees for this tournament are $13 per entry!

Checks for those entry fees will be made out to "New Mexico District, National Forensic League."

There will be additional information for those of you who still owe money to the national office...more on that later.

As always, let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!

Trey
